

| TRAVEL |

7 sky-high dining experiences around the world

These restaurants take cuisine to soaring heights.

BY ADRIENNE JORDAN

Morey's Piers

New Jersey, United States

Located on the Wildwood boardwalk, Morey's Piers' 156-foot Giant Wheel is one of the largest Ferris wheels on the East Coast, and hot breakfasts are served wheel-side, complete with white linens and fine china. The 2019 season marks the 50th anniversary of Morey's Piers, and to celebrate the occasion, Executive Chef Wally Juras is at the restaurant's helm. This year's menu includes smoked brisket, Jersey tomato BLT with fried egg, seafood omelet, and Belgian waffles with fresh Jersey fruit.

<https://www.nationalgeographic.com/travel/lists/food-and-drink/aerial-dining-experiences-around-the-world/>